OLD SCHOOL WEEK.
Allen B. Lincoln Receiving Assurances of Cooperation in 1915 Celebration.

Allen B. Lincoln, of New Haven, who is promoting an old school week for 1915, writes:
Let me add a few words concerning school groups, whose members will doubtless become interested in the celebration. It is proposed to arouse the interest for example, of former pupils of the late Porter B. Peck of North Windham; John G.

Clark of Windham, the Dr. Fitch school at South Windham; also the old stone schoolhouse with memory of Fred R. Barrows, Henry W. Avery, Harriet Moulton, Martha Chipman; of the Natchaug school under Principals David P. Corbin, Thomas H. Fuller, John B. Welch, Frank H. Besse, A. E. Peterson, John J. Maddox, and others, including also the names of assistant high school teachers as Eva E. Bingham, Frances Topf, Mary Howitt and grade teachers like Julia Peck, Sarah Tiffany, Inez Brown; of the First district schools under John D. Wheeler, Charles A. Merrill, Charles A. Holbrook and assistant Martha Kimball, and many others, principals and assistants and grade teachers of equal worth, whose names should be remembered and honored—I am recalling names now only from memory at the moment. There should be included also in the recognition principals and teachers in the latter-day model school of the first district and of the schools at North Windham, South Windham and Windham Center. There are those who will recall precious memories even from the old "Jerusalem" district.

I am already assured that the liveliest kind of personal interest will be taken in these recollections and in the Old School Week idea. I am in receipt of many letters favoring the plan. I should appreciate it if pupils of 25, 30, 40 or 50 years ago will write me at 962 Chapel street, New Haven, expressing their interest and cooperation with suggestions of reminiscences and of such old-time events as are worth recalling.

When the party broke up, the defendant met Chichon at the foot of the stairs, took him into his home, read him a lecture, struck him in the face and kicked him out of the house. The time of the alleged assault was 1:30 in the morning.

Beef Expensive Eating.
The price of beef is now 14 1/2 cents a pound wholesale in this city, and the chances are that it will go higher, according to local dealers, and traveling men in Boston and Worcester markets. The price ranges to a cent higher in the same quality, which is known as heavy or choice cut carcasses. So far the retail price has not advanced due to the fact that the dealers had stocked up in anticipation of the raise, but one retail dealer said Tuesday that it was only a matter of a day or so when the price would have to be boosted from two to four cents a pound. The present retail prices vary from 22 cents for shoulders to 40 cents for porterhouse.

U. P. MAY GRANT DIVIDENDS TO HOLDERS OF COMMON STOCK

Court of Appeals So Decides, to Exclusion of Holders of Preferred.

Albany, N. Y., July 14.—By a decision of the court of appeals today the Union Pacific Railroad company is permitted to grant dividends to holders of common stock on certain holdings to the exclusion of holders of preferred stock. Action was brought by the Equitable Life Assurance society to enjoin the defendants from this action. The judgment of the appellate division was unanimously affirmed with costs.

The Union Pacific may now distribute about $20,000,000 among holders of common stock. Of this amount $58,054,157 resulted from Northern Pacific transactions, and $15,543,200 came from a decrease in liabilities resulting from the exchange of convertible bonds. The Union Pacific officials maintained that these sums were "profits" and liable to distribution under certain provisions of the articles of association which excluded the preferred stockholders from participating in sharing such "profits."

This court held that the plaintiff had not shown sufficient cause for action, this being one of the questions asked.

The amount of preferred stock held by the Equitable Life Assurance society in the road was $1,618,000. Outstanding stock in the Union Pacific at the time the action was brought was $218,662,400 of common stock and $99,543,500 of preferred.
